More Than Color Blind When It Comes to "Red"

"Red" Dolan has been going to painting class at night at the high school. There had an exhibition and we all went to see what Red had done. Red's painting was one of the most beautiful there. We stared at it for the longest time, then all agreed it was a painting of a field close to town, and that it showed a woman in the distance who looked a lot like Red's wife. We congratulated our artist on his work. Red smiled, thanked us all, and was quite happy. When he left, Slim Johnson noticed the title card by the painting. It read: "Storm Scene on The Lake" by Red Dolan. From where I sit, there are often occasions when we don't see what we're really supposed to see. Why sometimes we can't even recognize intolerance when it comes along. For instance, if you begrudge me the right to an occasional glass of beer, that's no intolerant as if I denied you a glass of beer. Why don't we stop back and take another look at intolerance and see if for what it is?

AREA BOY SCOUTS PLAN BIG SHOW

The Scouting Exposition, an arena show, in addition to indoor and outdoor exhibits are planned for the largest activity of Scouting's Golden Jubilee year, to be held at the Midland Fair Grounds June 24, 25 and 26, according to Robert E. Perry, General Chairman of the event. Eighty per cent of the scouts in the Paul Bunyan Council, or 2,000 boys will demonstrate Scouting activities and skills to the general public.

All the Scouts and Explorers of the entire Council will join in a Camporee at the Fairgrounds during the Exposition. Scouts will live in tents, cook and display Boy Scout camping techniques from Friday until Sunday evening. The Scouts who will attend the Colorado Springs Golden Jubilee Jam-Jamboree tents and equipment in a model camp at the Exposition. The Camporee will be under the direction of William J. McMillan, Council Camping Chairman, N. R. Pratt, Participating Chairman for the Exposition has organized the various exhibits.

The Grayling Cub Scouts sponsored by the Methodist Men's Club and led by Cubmaster Norman Johnson will sponsor a bird house building exhibit. The Grayling Scout Troop and the Frederic Scout Troop, sponsored by the American Legion and Frederic Sportsmen's Club respectively, have not yet signed up for an exhibit. The Council hopes the units will participate in some of the area's special activities for the exhibition, winter sports, a Paul Bunyan jogging camp or some other.

R. L. D. S. News

Those mentioned earlier as attending the World Conference wish to report a most outstanding world-wide gathering of church people. The first Sunday, April 3, there were 20,000 members from all over the world gathered in the Convention during the five services. The Revelation was given through the present day prophet, and was brought before the business session on Monday. He listed the names of two men who fill vacancies in the Apostolic Quorum. The huge auditorium is nearly completed, and is unbelievably beautiful. The city had free access to the Convention. Conference visitors to and from the downtown area. They were helped to place an attractive new brick cornerstone set especially for the occasion. The city which helped to identify one of the many parking areas. The housing of visitors was a tremendous task. The members as well as non-members, acted as hosts. We were able to find areas where we were unable to pass on US-27 going down, but used the highway coming home. Norval Stephan took moving pictures of both the Conference and the flooded areas. He will be presenting them to those interested. Life magazine is to carry a picture story on the Envoys Centennial Convention so called because it has been 100 years since the church was reorganized. The story will appear in the April 25th or May 2nd issue of Life.

It would be a blessing for both parties, adopted foreign aid question and into the much higher ship. It is certainly obvious country cannot go on forever of the foreign aid cost.

Time For Action . . .

From National Review: "Look for foreign aid to emerge as important Nixon campaign issue. His thesis: foreign aid is too big a job for government money. Private business should take over much of the job; be encouraged to invest in underdeveloped countries through tax deferrals, other incentives."

It would be a blessing if other possible candidates, both parties, adopted a similar policy, and so took the foreign aid question out of the realm of partisanship. It is certainly obvious that the taxpayers of this country cannot go on forever carrying all or even most of the foreign aid cost.

Moreover, foreign aid as now constituted is basicly inefficient. One authority for that is the highly respected and non-political Stanford Research Institute. In its study of economic aid to the newly developing countries, it says: "The very multiplicity of aid programs and agencies presents a bewildering array of all and large bureaucracies that cannot possibly attain the administrative efficiency and field effectiveness attainable through a more purposeful and centralized authority."

"The greatest reservoir of industrial growth talent in the world has ever witnessed, American free enterprise, has not yet been successfully enlisted to contribute to the goal."

Here is a great and needless waste — not only of money, but of opportunity at a time when the slave world are embroiled in a bitter conflict for friendship of the developing nations. And this isn't a problem that can be passed over and postponed. The time for action is now.

Everybody's Problem . . .

Crime costs this nation some $22 billion a year — "In the last 10 years something has happened to the American public that is worse than communism. A new kind of crime is sweeping the nation. People claim it's right to be a little bit of a thief, to do a little wrong." That indictment comes from a real authority — Judge Gilliam of Denver. Naturally enough, he is particularly concerned about juvenile delinquency which, it is forecast, will double in the next 10 years. He says: "The belief seems to be 'Never get sore about anything. Don't fight the racketeer; you'd just get hurt.'"

"I ask boys why they stole, and they answered 'I didn't want to be a square.'"

"Can you imagine a great American who would say 'I didn't want to be a chicken?'"

"Thomas Jefferson and George Washington were angry Americans."

What we are confronted with is a great and gnawing moral problem. To quote Judge Gilliam once more, "We'll have delinquency as long as we have people who don't care, sloppy homes, people who excuse wrongdoing, poorly-trained teachers, filthy magazines and violent television programs." And this problem is everybody's problem.

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

April 23, 1937

First of the series of postgraduate lectures in pediatrics will be given at Grayling next Wednesday when Dr. John F. Sander, Lansing child specialist, will address physicians from all over the state. Dr. Sander will be in the city for a dinner meeting at 6 o'clock for a dinner meeting at Mercy Hospital.

One of the most enjoyable fathers-sons banquets ever held here was the one sponsored by the Kiwanis Club Wednesday night. Past President Emil Giesling and Rev. Edgar Flory were the special committee in charge. Instead of the customary speech making, the program was taken up by community singing, led by Royal A. Wright and Mrs. Clippert at the piano, a couple of instrumental numbers played by a high school band made up of John Henry P. 1900 cornet, Herber Feldman, and others.

The piano and motion pictures presented by C. H. Day of Traverse City.

An unfortunate situation exists in regard to the establishment of the property building line in the Michigan Avenue business district. Recently the city council passed a resolution determining that the building line be established 1 1/2 feet from the true property line, which is of various distances from the present store buildings.

Esbern Olson, who is ready to construct two new stores on the corner of Michigan and Peninsular Avenues and Frank Sales who would build next to the Chris Olsen store. Now it appears that opponents to this plan are requesting that the matter be brought into circuit court for determination. We understand this claim that the resolution passed was illegal in its phraseology giving "immediate effect." Now the matter must come up in circuit court in order to determine the matter once and for all and become a record affecting this matter in the future.

Mrs. Howard Smith is absent from her duties at the Hanson Cafe due to an injured finger.

Sheriff Frank Bennett and Clarence Gross drove to Saksy, Ohio, Sunday on business, returning Monday night.

Mr. Wicks, of Saginaw, connected with the Wicks Brothers Boiler Works, is building a cottage at Shreve Bay.

One of the Carl Sorenson cabins on US-27 across from the golf course, is completed. Another will be constructed shortly.

Harold MacEwen, Lawrence Balch, Wilbur Simpson and Orin Levan were initiated at a special meeting of the Moose Lodge Monday night. Lunch was served.

Mrs. Lottie Collins has rented the dining room of the Fischer Hotel to William Neal who expects to take it over permanently. Mrs. Collins will spend the summer in her cottage at the lake.

Neighbors and friends of Mrs. George Anne gathered at her home Wednesday evening and surprised her on her birthday. There were some thirty ladies and gentlemen in the party and many presented the hostess with a gift. Potluck lunch was served.

A fire at 8:30 o'clock Monday evening destroyed a car and other contents the garage contained at the home of Howard Smith. The fire started in the car. The interior of the garage building was also badly scorched and timely arrival of the fire department prevented a bad fire. The building was partially covered by insurance.

Conservation headquarters for the northern region of the lower peninsula, now located at Grayling, will be transferred to Roscommon next month. A new regional office building is now being completed by CCC workers at Roscommon, and is expected to be ready for occupancy May 1 or soon after. —Roscommon Herald News.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dawson were in Bay City Tuesday for the day.

The weather after a week end of rain and cold weather today is delightfully warm and bright. It looks as though spring had really arrived.

Camp Ginger-Quill, the summer home of the Henry B. Smith, Jr., family of Bay City, entertained a party of fourteen guests over the week end.

Our inquiring reporter evidently got Bud Darveau mixed with John Schram according to an item in the Avalanche last week saying that the latter is remodeling his blacksmith shop and gas station. Mr. Schram has a life lease on the blacksmith shop but the gas station is operated by Mr. Darveau.

H. E. Hauenstine of Erie, Mich., has purchased the auto service station of John LaMotte located about 8 miles south of Grayling on highway US-27. Associated with him is his daughter, Mrs. Pauline King. Besides the gas station there are several overnight cabins.

Mr. Hauenstine is a deputy sheriff of Monroe County, one of the busiest spots in the state and, according to some of his stories, he has had some very exciting experiences in his capacity of an officer.

All of the clubs and cabins along the river and many homes in town entertained guests on the opening of the trout season Saturday. It is said that Saturday morning there was a fisherman for every foot of the Ausable in some places. Many good catches were reported, among which were some who got their limit. Elmer Fenton was one of the latter, getting his limit of fifteen the first day. The weather was none too nice for fishing, but this did not dampen the ardor of the fishermen.

William Weiss, Jr., has leased the Gulf gas station across from the golf course.

An item in our last issue saying that Kenneth Gothro was working at the forestry at Houghton Lake was an error. He is spending a few days there visiting.

WARN YOUR CHILDREN ABOUT STRANGERS

Now is the time to warn your children about talking with strangers, advises Sgt. Carl Harrison, commanding officer of the Houghton Lake post of the Michigan State Police, who reminds that the season of warmer weather always brings an increase in child molestation cases.

Sex offenses against children reach their peak during the summer vacation period. A word of caution now could help your child from becoming involved in a degrading experience that could mar his life or even bring physical harm.

"The safest rule for children to follow," Sgt. Harrison said, "is to have nothing to do with strangers and to tell their parents immediately if any strangers approach them and offer them candy or other things if they will go with them."

Citizens Study Committee Minutes

A special meeting of the trustees of Grayling School District No. 1 was called to order at 7:30 in Alumni Room, by President Jerome Kessler.

Present: Trustees—Jerome Kessler, LeRoy Millikin, Eva Strong and Bill Joseph, and Supt. Joseph Stripe, with Trustee Melvin Nielson absent.

Also present were the following members of the "Citizens Study Committee," who had been asked to attend the first organizational meeting: Mr. James Baker, Mr. Stanley Berry, Mr. Richard DuBois, Mr. Ward Ellison, Mr. Barney Engel, Mr. Claude Halstead, Mr. Don Jansen, Mr. Don Kangas, Mr. Leonard Kallies, Mrs. Louis Konvicka, Mr. Arnold Mauren, Mrs. Ted Mauren, Rev. E. C. Puffer, Mrs. Robert C. Schulze.

Others asked but were not present included: Mr. John Aler, Mr. James Brown, Mrs. J. F. Cook, Mrs. Robert Fuchs, Mrs. Lora Gould, Mrs. E. E. Henrich, Mr. Ralph Hoffman, Mrs. Leslie Hunter, Mr. Wesley LaGrow, Mr. Melvin Luckett, Mrs. Robert Sorenson.

Also in attendance were Mrs. Franz Kersch and Mr. Richard DuBois.

President Kessler and Supt. Stripe explained the purpose and aims of the Citizens Study Committee, and this was followed by general discussion with questions and answers on such subjects as buildings and sites, finances and taxation, curriculum and teachers, and other allied school affairs.

It was agreed by all present that much good could come out of the work of this committee, and Mr. Arnold Mauren suggested that the meetings be continued, and a general chairman be elected. Moved by Knibbs and supported by Mauren that Mrs. Robert Schulze be elected, amended to temporary chairman. Motion carried.

It was stressed that this group would not consist of board members or teachers, and that they would work with the board to aid and advise in our local education programs.

After further discussion on school coffee and do-nuts were served, and the meeting adjourned at 10:30 p. m. Mrs. Schulze informed those present that they would be notified of the time and place for the next meeting in the near future.

Mrs. Joseph Stripe To Attend Defense Institute

Mrs. Joseph Stripe received word last Tuesday that she had been chosen as one of thirty out of seven hundred applicants to attend the Federal National Defense Institute in Foreign Languages to be held at Michigan State University during the summer term starting June 24th this year. Mrs. Stripe made her application in February, at which time she had 8 hours of credit in the Spanish language. Since her application she has completed 6 more credit hours by examination at Central Michigan University.

In applying for the Institute she submitted a history of all the language courses she had taken in college, a requirement being two years of college language. Mrs. Stripe majored in French, but expressed a preference for Spanish secondary courses at the Institute. One-half of her preference was fulfilled, as she will be taking elementary Spanish courses, which actually require a greater facility in the language. Mrs. Stripe also submitted, as did all applicants, a tape recording done in Spanish.

The thirty Institute students will be housed according to their language group, French or Spanish, and will be required to speak the language at all times, as part of their training. The course will be completed on August 5th.

Home Extension News

The Penny Pinchers Home Extension group met April 12th at the home of Mrs. Barney Hunter. The lesson on laundry was given by Mrs. Earl Broadbent and Mrs. Frank May, with assistance from others. The penny prize was won by Mrs. Broadbent's husband, Earl. Tasty refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be April 26th at the home of Mrs. Wesley Hayes.

and will do anything about it. I believe that upon inquiry, you would find that almost all of the local people are in agreement on this, including the sportsmen's club, and the guides association, and the chamber of commerce. I would appreciate your making such inquiries for your own information as well as mine.

Mr. Smith will also have to recognize the fact that should the well known rivalry between the liveries be forgotten, and some joint action be taken by them as a group, real results would shortly be apparent to every one.

Give me a reason why you have not already done so? You have stated that you recognize that such a situation does exist. What are you waiting for? Too long a wait for this action is very liable to jeopardize all of the canoe and other business locally, including my own.

The Boardman has no such serious problem, neither has the Pere Marquette, although they have a great many canoes! Could it be they are better equipped with campgrounds, etc? Then do something about it. BUT do this together or no results will be forthcoming.

To further clarify the campsite situation: Burtons landing, in addition to being too near Grayling, does not have any available water supply, therefore, few canoes use this spot for overnight stops.

The new pull out point below Stephens bridge will have no sanitary facilities, nor water supply, and cannot have either for several years, therefore, how many canoeists do you think this small pull out point will accommodate?

The next spot is two miles or more below Wakeleys bridge, and is leased by the state from Consumers for campsite purposes. It also has no water supply near, and has but one toilet. Upon checking I find that under existing sanitary laws of the state, a certain type of pump, on a well pipe driven in the ground is permissible.

Why, since the liveries are so concerned with the campsites and wish to co-operate with the property owners as to advising the canoeists where to camp, don't they request the Conservation Department to put in a well? This would create a very desirable site for overnight camping.

Again I stress the fact that such action taken by these canoe liveries is the only way to get results. It's about time the personalities involved stopped considering only themselves, and the narrow interests as well as the interest of the public to task. The key word here is cooperation.

Getting back to the only other pull out point which is now under construction, located just below McMaisters bridge. It is also just a pull out point, and canoeists are obliged to camp on other private property, some of which is Consumers.

Further possibilities are at present being explored, and you will be kept informed, and through publication in the Avalanche, it is hoped by all concerned in bringing this situation before the local business men and the public, that some CONCERTED action will be taken besides the talking out of different points of view, and will be beneficial to all.

Thank You,
Bud Stephan

Former Resident Laid To Rest At Cheboygan

Alfred Charles Dingman, of Cheboygan, died April 16, at the General Hospital in Flint following a three-day illness. He was 86 years old on his last birthday, nearly a year ago.

Born May 11, 1874, at Mackinac Island, he lived with his parents in Grayling from 1906 to 1914 in the present Barton Wakeley house. From here he moved to Cheboygan then to Flint, and in 1920 moved to Cheboygan where he had since lived.

A section foreman from Grayling to Frederic while in Grayling, Mr. Dingman worked for the Buick company in Flint, and then opened the Dingman Market in Pine Run, which he operated until 10 years ago.

He was married March 6, 1895, to the former Jane E. Kennedy. She preceded him in death in 1949.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Isabel Rose, of Cheboygan, Mrs. Anna Ingalls of Detroit, Mrs. Beulah McKee of Bowin, Ariz., and Mrs. Ellen Hall of Kalamazoo; three sons, Glen of Grayling, Charles and Bert of Cheboygan; 14 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Mae Keller of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Funeral services were held Saturday, April 23, at 1:00 p. m. at the Rev. Herman Whiting officiating, and one on Friday, April 22nd, from the home of the late Mr. Dingman in Cheboygan. The Rev. H. J. Salomon officiating. Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Cheboygan.
